PRIMACOVER®

Combi

Absorberend spinvlies

If you want the advantages of both painter's drop cloth and floor protection, choose PrimaCover Combi. This absorbent nonwoven floor covering can be used like a cardboard floor covering, but is much lighter in weight. This covering material is also liquid-proof thanks to the strong foil on its underside. PrimaCover Combi can be used in many ways, including for construction, renovation and painting work. The covering material is also suitable as floor protection in industry, in production areas and in spray booths.
